Coming off off RT-8 S to steels corners white buick was in front of me turning right on red. She was about to turn, as her car was out in the intersection a white car sped past ~~the~~ the intersection and the buick slammed on the brake. I then slammed on my brakes. I didn't even know I tapped her. I then pulled over, there is no damage to my vehicle and a scuff on her right bumper, (not even a dent).

I was turning off of route 8 exit, stopped before turning. As I was turning, there was a car approaching past, so it wasn't clear to turn at that moment, when it was OK to turn, the car/truck behind me bumped into my bumper, thinking I was making the turn at that moment.
