Was traveling behind the maroon minivan when it was a green light in the right lane, traffic was backed up ^{in left lane} and had given room for anyone turning on Elm Road. The maroon minivan was continuing straight on Graham Road and did not see that a gray sedan would be turning, as the gray ~~turned~~ ^{sedan turned} left and collided into the maroon minivan flipping her car in the process. the gray sedan turned into traffic and did not make sure it was safe for them to turn onto Elm ~~Road~~ Road.

I was in the second lane from curb a couple cars ahead of the accident waiting to go East bound down Graham. I noticed a gray Honda trying to turn through traffic onto Elm. I then looked through my passenger side mirror and saw the red mini van. I then saw the gray Honda travel through the stopped traffic in the lane second from curb right into the path of the red mini van in the curb lane. I saw the Honda flip over. I then proceeded to turn around in the Marc's parking lot. I cut the airbag (window) and made sure she (the woman in the Honda) was conscious. Another bystander pulled the woman in the Honda out of the car.

OFFICER'S NAME LOCATION

I was in the left lane and the red van was coming down the right. the left lane was backed up enough that the red van in the right lane didn't see the silver car turning in time to stop. they collided and the silver car flipped and skidded to a stop, and I pulled forward to help. The owner of the red car seemed frazzled, called 911/insurance maybe? And I pushed the airbag of the driver's side out of the way to look in the vehicle. Betty (older woman) was inside, she could ~~not~~^{??} answer me alright. She wasn't displaying any sign of spine or leg injury, so another person cut the airbag and helped hold it out of the way while I pulled her out of the car. She seemed in shock, couldn't remember how many times she turned the car before the accident. I sat with her and talked to her while we waited for first responders.
