At about 12:05 pm, 10 December 2024, I was at the light to turn left from Bailey to Graham. There were no cars in front of me to turn left or go straight from Bailey. There were no cars coming the opposite direction from the parking lot behind the light. When I saw the green arrow to turn, I proceeded to turn left. As I did, I was struck in the front right passenger side and I swerved to the left. After regaining control, I pulled over and exited the vehicle. The other drivers accused me of striking them, claiming they had a green light. They then stated they would pay for all damages.
