I was headed north on Rt 8 to turn left onto Steels Corners. A driver headed east on Steels Corners was stopping at the light and stopped well ahead of the stop line. While making the turn from the left turn lane ~~lane~~ my vehicle bumped the front left side of her car. I got out and immediately checked to see if she was ok, which she was. I apologized and said I didn't swing out far enough to avoid her, but again her vehicle was about 4 feet ahead of the stop line. I hesitated moving our vehicles so that a cop could have seen how far ahead of the line she was, but cops advised we move out of the intersection before they arrive. The other driver did not get out of her car on scene to see just how far ahead of the stop line she was. We both moved to the courthouse parking lot where a cop met with us to discuss. I would have had to swing out into the other turn lane to avoid her because of how far ahead of the line she was stopped, and there was other traffic turning. There was really no safe way to avoid hitting her vehicle,

OFFICER'S NAME LOCATION

I was stopped at a red light on Steels Corners Rd waiting to turn north on Rt 8. A car came off the ramp from Rt 8 and ran into the front of my car. When the lady got out & came up to my passenger side window she said to me, "I'm so sorry. This was my fault. I didn't swing out wide enough to get around you." She admitted fault. I do not feel my insurance should have to pay this claim, even though the officer didn't sight either of us. I also don't know what she was looking at when she hit me.
