Pulled up to light at Norton Rd + Darrow Rd heading south bound. The light turned green, I gently honked + when the car in front didn't move, I went around the vehicle. The vehicle then proceeds to chase me through the intersection + through the intersection of Fishcreek and Darrow where the driver rear ended me. When I pulled over to call police, the driver exited. I photographed the vehicle and called police.

During Friday afternoon, I was on my way to Kent whenever a beige like mid class Subaru maybe an Outback but I couldn't be sure had cut my vehicle off and nearly crashed into my car. I had to veer and decelerate my vehicle to avoid him from hitting me. The speed limit was 45mph through the southern part of Hudson where this all started. I believe we had come to a light. I had called 911 once I realized that once we turned onto Fishcreek Rd from going SB on Rt. 91, the male brake-checked me, at least 2 to 3 times. My tires on that car were bad to begin with so whenever I tried to slowdown and also at the angle Fishcreek had I unfortunately hit his car. It was when he came to a complete stop ~~and hit my car~~ that I ~~couldn't~~ ~~have~~ ~~per~~ didn't have enough reaction time to avoid from hitting the rear part of his vehicle. I was f---ing out on the phone with the dispatch lady after I hit his car and chose to remain anonymous. Before I could get his information (license plate, make/model) he had already fled the scene. I couldn't tell or not if there was any damage to the other vehicle. -<
