INCIDENT DATE

AND TIME

9/25/21 2037

My family and I were walking on the sidewalk on Surrey Lane (heading north). We noticed a white car backing out of a driveway on Sulley Lane (the house was on the south side of the road). The car revved its engine as it made the right hand turn on to Surrey Lane. We turned our heads at the loud bang behind us. It was the white car jumping the curb. Both the front tires and back driver tires came up and off the curb - the car destroyed the mail box, which was knocked off its post (the post could not be found by us or the homeowner).

The white car zipped past us and went down Surrey Lane. We did not see which way it turned when it reached N. River Road.

We knocked on the door of the homeowner, told him what happened. He came out, inspected the damages to the mailbox, and we decided to call the police.
