I was driving down the street to the gym about to turn left at the light. The light was green I can not remember if I had a arrow to be honest but it was green I thought I was safe to turn and as I was turning a car smashed into me. I was going maybe about 30 but slowed down to turn. I can not remember exactly where the car was it. I thought it was the right side. I was a little confused and dazed I can remember people looking and coming toward the accident. I can remember a woman yelling at me from the side something about what is wrong with me or something to that effect and then I tried to move but I couldn't I was so confused and shocked a man came asked me was I ok and some nurses came and spoke to me. They said the police was on the way. I asked to call my husband and before I knew it the ambulance was there and they checked me out.

I was driving in the far right lane off Hudson Dr.; my light was green and a woman looked like she was going straight and then immediately cut in front of me making a left hand turn onto allen rd, I saw her turn too fast to stop I tried to hit the brakes but she was turning too quickly. Hit me almost head on my air bags deployed and I smelled burning so I got out the passenger side. Stephen Haas was a witness & he saw everything his number is 330-730-9821.
