~~I~~ I came down to the parking section just above the visitor's section. I made a left and found a vacant spot I wanted to park in. There were cars on both sides of this spot, one being a red 2016 buick. I decided I wanted to back into this parking spot, so to do that I knew I needed to make a slight turn to the left to angle myself to the parking spot. As I turned left I checked once more to make sure there was no movement from the other cars. I saw no movement, so I put the car in Reverse and proceeded to back in. As I was backing in I made sure to keep checking my mirrors and all windows. About 5 seconds into backing in I then heard a thud. I saw a girl in a Red buick who looked spooked. She backed out while I was backing in. We immediately got out of our cars and exchanged insurances. I told her I was sorry even though the crash wasn't caused by me.

OFFICER'S NAME LOCATION

I was backing out of my spot in the lot closest to the football stadium, facing the field. Titus came around the corner while I was backing out, so I stopped to let him pass. He began to back into the spot to my right and hit my cars back right with the front right of his car. After the hit, he told me that it was his fault and he didn't see me. He also admitted he was late for his class.
