(330) 689-2869

The City of Stow Law Department offers to present to your group (teens, college-age, senior citizens) on a wide range of topics, including:

- Community Safety
- Scams & Fraud Prevention
- Bullying - In-person and Online
- Identity Fraud
- Sexting
- Start by Believing - Learn how to react and respond when someone tells you that they are a victim of sexual assault.

These free presentations are 45-60 minutes long and can be done at your location. Some of the presentations will include teaming up with the Summit County Prosecutor's Office.

If you would like a representative from the Law Department to speak for your group, you may contact Law Director, Drew Reilly (law@stow.oh.us) to discuss scheduling and the topic to be reviewed.
