I was in the back parking lot of the safety center when I heard a car horn coming from the direction of Dirker Blvd. I looked in that direction just in time to see a motor vehicle collision. I saw a dark colored car northbound on Dirker Blvd hit a white larger vehicle on it's front passenger side. I walked toward the crash to check on the drivers and saw that the white vehicle was the city animal control truck. Officer Molody drove past me in his cruiser and blocked the road.

I was traveling down Dirker Blvd toward the Post office. I was going 25 mph. I saw the white truck and thought he was going to stop in the divided road until I passed. Then I saw he was looking behind him so I braked hard and layed on the horn.
