I was turning left and the light was red. I didn't see the person closest stopping, but they were quite a way back, so I thought they'd slow down and stop. I was trying to get out of the intersection. They had actually sped up and slammed into the side of me so hard that they shoved me into the left lane of Fishcreek. Because I was looking left to turn, I didn't see that they sped up, let alone sped up that much. I didn't hear tires squealing or her brakes. She didn't honk.

Q. Where was the other vehicle coming from?
