 me and Kirstin were driving and having a conversation going around 37 mph. We looked at each other for a split second and when we looked up the car in front of us was slamming on his breaks and I tried to slam on mine to avoid hitting him but wasn't able to avoid. Then the air bags went off and we both went forward, then got out of the car to get air and ask the driver in front of us if he was ok. Then we sat down and waited for the police to arrive.

I was travelling toward stow, OH from Hudson where I work as a therapist. At the intersection of Wexford and Fishcreek there was a vehicle turning left and I came to a stop behind 2-3 cars as we waited for the car to turn. Soon after I stopped, (a few seconds) a car slammed into the back of my car and I felt a strong jolt. I then put on my hazards and called 911 to alert them to what happened.

I was at a complete stop, waiting for cars ahead of me to make a left turn and the car from behind hit me at I would say at 40 to 45 mph. The kids driving the car looked distracted and hit me at full speed, they did not brake.

~~My car~~ The force from which I was hit from behind pushed my car into the car that was parked in front of me.
