 I was driving probably about 30 mph. I made sure to keep a good distance from the car ahead to make sure I could stop. We approached the light and I braked at what I thought was a fine distance. My tires started to lock and so I started pumping my brakes but still nothing happened. Then I was right behind her and knocked into her. I was hoping I was going slow enough to not damage my vehicle or hers but unfortunately I cannot say that is the case.
