While traveling East bound at 3:15pm on 9-15-24, I began braking as I saw a line of cars coming to a stop in front of me. As I came to about 10mph from 35mph in a few seconds (3). My son and I were hit in the rear by a car that looked like a Ford Escape. I then pulled to the right curb, turned on my hazards and got out of my car to get my son out of the car to check on him. I did not look at the license plate of the car but did see a black woman mid twenties driving the car with another lady in the passenger seat with a red dot on her forehead. They rolled down the passenger window and yelled out that they were sorry as I grabbed my son out of the car. I held him as she yelled I'm sorry again while on the phone with 911. She then drove off Northbound on Highland Ave from 2262 Graham Road. I called 911 as I got out of my car.
