PAR-TEA TIME AT THE EMERALD NECKLACE INN

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Well, it looks like we will have to wait on our big plans for the Grand Opening of the NEW Community and Senior Center a little while longer. We have had some construction and project delays that will push back our opening. At this time, we do not have an opening date. For the time being, we will continue to operate out of the current senior center and Leona Farris Lodge for our larger events. Please remember, the new site is an active construction zone, as much as we love how excited you are to get in there (so are we!), for your safety, please do not try to enter the building or look through the windows.

In the meantime, we are tallying up all of the completed surveys to see what types of upcoming programs and events you want to see! If you have not completed the survey, there are blank forms at the senior center, library and City Hall. Thank you to everyone who has taken the time to complete them.

In addition to our senior programs and events, the Stow Parks and Recreation Department has a lot of great upcoming programs for you to enjoy! These include the annual Stow Fourth of July Parade and Firecracker Run, Concerts on the Green, neighborhood pop up parties and Sunset Blast. More information on these can be found on the Facebook page, Fun in Stow or on the website at stowohio.org. If you are interested in getting more information on community programs and the ongoings of the City, please register for the monthly e-newsletters.
